

IN THE SPECIFICATION:

Please amend the paragraph beginning on Page 1, line 15 as follows:

Relating to distribution of movie works via optical discs, there is a type of business by which a movie work relating to a character is distributed in a same optical disc in which a game relating to the character is also recorded. Games to be recorded in optical discs are developing from simple ones as in quiz format, to full-fledged ones in which three-dimensional computer graphics is incorporated. The following ~~patent reference 1~~ Japanese Patent Publication No. 3069324 discloses an example of prior art that records a game program which is non-AV data, in the same optical disc prestoring AV data constituting the substance of a movie work.
